

LINDFIELD, NSW

4 3 5

Project Overview - Cost of new addition $750,000

The owners were looking for extra living space for their growing family. They love Lindfield, the neighbourhood they live in and their house with its beautiful features. Rather than move, they decided the answer was a new addition to their family home.

The finished project has more than provided the practical and beautifully designed spaces for their family they had always hoped for. The new addition of 44.2sqm which includes a beautiful family room with a fireplace, bi-fold doors opening onto the deck, open space living combining the kitchen and dining, bamboo floorboards throughout and new light fixtures.
